No minimum vehicle or spend requirements

Easy admin tools save you time and hassle

There's no need to collect individual petrol receipts or process petrol expense claims. Fuel Max simplifies your admin and tax procedures by itemising all transactions on one electronic statement.

More places to refuel so you keep moving

Fuel Max Fuelcards give you access to your choice of BP, Caltex, Shell, Woolworths/Safeway and Coles Express service stations nationally. That's 4,350 locations, or up to 70% of Australia's service stations.

Greater security gives you increased control

You can set product access and spend limits for each driver with PIN security. Plus, our comprehensive reporting options track all transactions, odometer readings and fuel consumption.

Competitive fuel pricing and transparent pump prices

One low tax-deductible card fee of $1 a week per vehicle, no fuel surcharges and 28 days interest-free terms. You're not locked into any one fuel supplier – just choose the lowest pump price.

Apply today and start enjoying the convenience and benefits of a fuel card.
